Madrid, 27 December 2006

Dear Sir or Madam,

I am pleased to announce the SPANISH CONFERENCE ON E-SCIENCE GRID COMPUTING 2007, to be held on 1st and 2nd March 2007 in Madrid. The event is hosted by CETA (Centro Extremeño de Tecnologías Avanzadas) and CIEMAT (Centro de Investigaciones Energéticas, MedioAmbientales y Tecnológicas), both research centres ascribed to the Spanish Ministry of Education and Science.

The purpose of the Conference is to highlight current e-Science achievements in the research and industrial spheres with special focus on the use and exploitation of existing grid e-Infrastructures currently available in Europe and beyond.

Prominent speakers will be invited to present and discuss advances on e-Science Grid initiatives as well as to share expertise on relevant projects and programmes.

A draft agenda, together with a registration form, are available at: <http://webrt.ciemat.es:8000/e-science>. Only registered attendees will be accepted to participate in the event. Filling in the Registration Form by 10th February 2007 is a mandatory requirement for those of you who wish to attend. Registration will be closed after this date.

You are invited to submit papers with unpublished, original work by 20th January 2007. All papers will be peer-reviewed and the accepted ones will be published on the Conference website.

For further information, please visit the aforesaid website. Contents will be continuously updated. For all other enquiries, please contact us via email: info.conference@ciemat.es, or telephone: +34 91 346 61 69.

I look forward to meeting you in Madrid.

Yours sincerely,

Jesús Casado
Head of Informatics Area
